

$192,995,551.62 BUDGET FOR 1914; INCREASE, $284,110

Final Figures are Being Considered This Afternoon by Board of Aldermen.

MANY ITEMS REDUCED. Largest Increase—Nearly $3,000,000—is for the Board of Education.

What are believed to be the final figures of the budget of 1914 were made public today. They are being officially acted upon this afternoon by the Board of Aldermen and then go to Mayor Kline.

The total of the 1914 budget which is in the hands of the Board of Aldermen is $192,995,551.62. The total of the budget for 1913, as revised by the Board of Aldermen and the Mayor, was $192,711,441.16.

The increase is $284,110.46. The budget for 1914 is divided as follows: First, the amounts estimated to be required to pay the expenses of conducting the public business, to meet the debt charges of the city for the year 1914, and to meet a direct tax levied upon the city for the same year, $18,342,989.90.

Second—The amount estimated to be the deficiency on Jan. 1, 1913, in the product of taxes theretofore levied, deemed to be uncollectable and not otherwise provided for—$2,500,000.

Third—The amounts estimated to be required to pay the assessments levied against the Boroughs of Manhattan and Brooklyn for 1914—$30,000,000.

Fourth—The amounts estimated to be required to pay the charges and expenses of the Counties of New York, Bronx, Kings, Queens and Richmond for 1914—$4,800,165.96.

MAYOR KLINE SPENT IN CAMPAIGN—NOTHING!

His Re-election to Board of Aldermen Cost Nobody a Cent, His Statement Shows.

In his arduous campaign through Brooklyn when he ran for re-election to the Board of Aldermen, Mayor Ardolph I. Kline spent nothing. He did not ask any one to come forward with checks or bundles of cash to help him. He didn't ask for any and he told those who might be interested that he refused to accept money gifts to help his campaign.

INSPECTOR DWYER'S HOLIDAY

Would Have Taken It in July but for Healy's Hints. Inspector John P. Dwyer, who has been in command of the Fourth Inspection District since Aug. 1, 1912, left today for a vacation of fifteen days. He had planned to take a holiday last July, but the matter of the trials on Healy's restaurant for alleged violation of the 1 o'clock closing law prevented him.

BLINDED BY RAIN, WOMAN FALLS INTO RIVER AND DROWNS

That Is Explanation Offered When Miss Williams's Body Is Found in Walkkill.

Mystery surrounds the death of Miss Amanda Williams, fifty-two years old, whose body was found in the Walkkill River, near Walkkill, Ulster County, today by Raymond Titus of that village, who was on his way to the Borden Condensery, where he is employed. With a stick he brought the body to shore and pulled it upon the bank, after which he ran to the Condensery office and telephoned the authorities at Walkill.

Chief of Police George Honk, accompanied by Coroner Dubois, soon appeared, but by that time a crowd had gathered. No one, however, was able to identify the body. The coroner could find no marks of violence. A purse containing 65 cents and a return trolley ticket from Walkill to Newburgh was all that was discovered. The body was taken to the undertaking establishment of T. L. Milbrath at Walkill, where it was identified by former Supervisor W. G. Decker as his cousin, Amanda Williams of Newburgh.

It was at first supposed that there had been foul play and that the woman had been shoved into the river as she was walking along the river road to visit friends. But from the facts as they appeared to the officials, the woman must have gone to Walkill by trolley about 7 o'clock on Saturday evening, and started to walk to Walkill, about three miles away. The roads were muddy, as it had been raining hard all day and, it is supposed, as she neared the Borden Condensery she became blinded by the storm and walked into the river near where her body was found.

Near this spot a few years ago, was found the body of Marie Stuart, who was one of Walkill's society girls, and the circumstances surrounding whose death were never brought to light.

WRECKED STEAMER A LAKE MYSTERY; 40 MAY BE LOST

Big Steel Freighter Bottom Up Near Port Huron, Mich., and No Trace of the Crew.

PORT HURON, Mich., Nov. 11.—When the tug Sarnia City returned this forenoon, after an all-night watch over the big steel 400-foot freighter which lies upside down in Lake Huron, she brought no additional information as to the identity of the wrecked vessel. The name of the derelict remains far and near the water and the waves are still rolling high.

Capt. Reid of the tug returned more firm than ever in his belief that all of the thirty or forty members of the crew of the freighter must have been drowned. The wreck not having been reported until late yesterday, it was difficult to ascertain when the disaster occurred and where it took place. The overturned vessel probably drifted several miles.

Capt. Plough, in charge of the local life saving station, left this forenoon with his crew for the scene of the wreck. Searching parties were also organized to patrol the shore in search of wreckage.

Reports indicate that a shifting of cargo may have been responsible for the accident. Capt. Reid also ventured the opinion that another vessel may be on the bottom of Lake Huron near where the overturned steamer was first discovered.

As if purposely projected to mark the grave of a score or more of sailors, the water like a huge black shaft it is pointed toward the north and east, which would indicate the helpless condition of the crew toward the east, and that the vessel had swung around at the mercy of the mountain-high waves.

Republicans Now Claim Werner's Election by 1,253. Judge Werner has been elected to the Chief Judgeship of the Court of Appeals, according to the claims made today by Republican State Headquarters. Figures received there show that Werner's plurality over Bartlett is 1,253.

GLYNN SAYS STATESMEN SEE PRIMARY GHOSTS

Only Shadow Exists in Connection With Abolition of State Convention, He Declares.

ALBANY, Nov. 11.—Gov. Glynn favors the abolition of the State convention, but he is not certain that he can obtain a sufficient following on this point to include it in the new direct primary law which he now plans. "Personally," he said today, "I believe that in the abolition of the State convention a great many of our statesmen see ghosts where only shadows exist. I do not know whether I can get a majority of the legislators to agree with me."

The Governor was asked if he favored the abolition of party emblems, but he refused to commit himself.

From now until Dec. 3, when the Legislature will reconvene, the Governor will be engaged in frequent conferences over the proposed primary law. He intends to consult party leaders of all factions.

LOVE WAGER IS COSTLY.

SOUTH NORWALK, Conn., Nov. 11.—James Quinn and Harold Dunn wagered $5 yesterday that each possessed the love of Sorophino Desbraugh. Percy St. Clair was made stakeholder and the fair Sorophino was called in to settle the matter. She turned her back on both Quinn and Dunn. St. Clair kept the $10, whereupon Dunn struck him with a candleabra.

Both St. Clair and Dunn were arrested and each was fined $20 in court. St. Clair had to use part of the $20 to pay a doctor for sewing up his scalp.

Two Song Recitals Given At Aeolian Hall Yesterday.

By Sylvester Raelling. ELLEN LEARNED gave a song recital at Aeolian Hall yesterday afternoon. She began with an aria from Mozart's "La Clemenza di Tito," followed with a German song that included compositions by Bach, Humperdinck, Strauss, Henschel and Rubinstein, continued with a French song by Lully, Saint-Saens, Debussy, Heas, Faure and Cesar Franck, and finished with an English group that held examples of Landow Ronald, Liza Lehman, Eladio Chao and an old Irish air, arranged by Katharine Tynan. "Would God I Were the Tender Apple Blossom," John Cushing was the accompanist at the piano. Miss Learned was well received by a friendly audience.

SAVE YOUR HAIR! IF FALLING OUT OR DANDRUFF—25 CENT DANDERINE

Ladies! Men! Here's the quickest, surest dandruff cure known. Thin, brittle, colorless and straggly hair is mute evidence of a neglected scalp; of dandruff—that awful scurf. There is nothing so destructive to the hair as dandruff. It robs the hair of its lustre, its strength and its very life; eventually producing a feverishness and itching of the scalp, which if not remedied causes the hair roots to shrink, loosen and die—the hair falls out fast. A little Danderine-to-night—now any time—will surely save your hair.

Get a 25-cent bottle of Knowlton's Danderine from any drug store or toilet counter, and after the first application your hair will take on that life, lustre and luxuriance which is so beautiful. It will become wavy and fluffy and have the appearance of abundance; an incomparable gloss and softness, but what will please you most will be after just a few weeks' use, when you will actually see a lot of fine, downy hair—new hair—growing all over the scalp.
